

The Immigration System:

How we can help Immigrants Fight Deportation

Our Goal: to overwhelm ICE and the immigration court system with well prepared cases as an effective way to save lives, disrupt the system, and stop deportations.

Immigration Team of CT Shoreline Indivisible

Saturday, February 2, 10:00 am-12:00

First Congregational Church, 110 Broad St., Guilford

Ana María Rivera-Forastiere, Co-Director of the CT Bail Fund and works with CIRA-CT Immigrant Rights Alliance and Attorney Glenn Formica, Immigrant lawyer.

Working Together: Ct Shoreline Indivisible, New Haven Legal Assistance Association, Immigration Bail Fund, IRIS, allies and volunteer support teams can provide legal representation to immigrants in Greater New Haven facing deportation.

- ◆ Update of immigration law and how it affects the cases we work with.
- ◆ Overview of the immigration system including ICE, Immigration Court and Federal Court
- ◆ Presentation on immigrants in detention and the Immigrant Bail Fund.
- ◆ Outline of tasks and responsibilities of Support Team members, accompaniment to ICE and Immigration Court hearings.

Join a support team, volunteer for accompaniment,
do research on the country of origin, provide guidance and comfort to immigrant families.

You can make a difference in the lives of immigrants and their families.
